The Hotel Marco Polo sits at one end of the small town of La Massana, the base area for accessing the ski resort of Pal, part of the Vallnord ski area. The hotel has no fewer than 121 rooms, making it ideal for bookings of all sizes, including much larger groups.

The hotel benefits from a large dining room as well as other large communal areas, all perfect for group discussions and meeting points. There is free wi-fi throughout the hotel, which extends to the bedrooms as well as the main parts of the building.

The Pal gondola is just 500m walk from the hotel door and the terrain between the two points is perfectly flat, making it an easy and accessible walk for all. Ski equipment is generally stored at the gondola base station, meaning clients are not required to carry equipment any distances.
